What: Workshop on one of the most popular and fastest growing segments of the world's largest business, designed to teach attendees how to take advantage of assets already in place in order to develop world class wildlife tourism businesses in the South Platte region. This workshop will be facilitated by Jim Mallman of Watchable Wildlife, Inc. (www.watchablewildlife.org). Mallman's company facilitates similar workshops across America, Canada, Mexico, Russia, & China, that help business and community leaders better understand how natural areas in their region hold the answer to protecting and improving the quality of life and building a sustainable economic base.

Cost: is $25/person
($40 after May 11)

Last day to register is
May 14!
